

A special invitation from Tower Hamlets Summer Uni.
Come along to The Royal Opera House and see The Royal Ballet perform Onegin on Saturday 31 March at 2pm.

If this excites you and you would like to go when you book just mention you are a Tower Hamlets Summer Uni Student. Read on to find out how to buy your ticket. Hurry places are limited and going fast.

Dear Students from Tower Hamlets Summer University

The tickets for this performance are priced at only £5, £10 and £15. This is made possible by the generosity of the Paul Hamlyn Foundation who enables us to welcome groups of people who would never otherwise have the opportunity to attend a performance at the Royal Opera House. Our Hamlyn performances are not open to the general public and only specially invited groups are encouraged to attend.

You can also find out more by visiting our website at www.hamlyn.roh.org.uk

Prior to the performance is a series of free activities and events, including design and music workshops, backstage tours, dance classes and introductory talks. You will even have the chance to get dressed up in a costume and have your photograph taken!

As a student from  you can make your application for tickets online. To access the application page please enter the word 'welcome' as the username and 'summer' as the password.

Alternatively if you do not have access to the internet please contact Clare Thurman on 020 7212 9410 to discuss your ticket booking or Jenny Cater at THSU on 020 7247 7900.

Once you have made a booking, we will post your tickets to you as well as a pre-performance activity booking form and details about our special offer in our restaurant.

If you have any queries whatsoever, please do not hesitate to contact me. I look forward to hearing from you and also welcoming you all to the Royal Opera House in the spring!
